Important event information

The trailhead is about a 20 minute drive from Ashland. A favorite hiking trail for local residents, Grizzly Peak is a moderate trail taking you to grand vistas of the Rogue Valley. On a clear day you'll view Mt McLaughlin from the start of the trail and on top facing south you get a nice look at CA's 14K foot tall Mt Shasta. To the west and north you can see Ashland and Medford in the sprawling Rogue Valley.

Start phrase: Grizzly Peak Trailhead, Ashland, Oregon.

The trail is 8km, but 10km can be achieved by walking an out and back section of the peak loop trail or by continuing down the forest road to the first intersection below the trailhead. The 10km option walking down the road will require a driver to pick you up 2km from the trailhead. Pit toilet available at the trailhead. Challenges: Forest, Mountains, Nature.
